Reeve Noland, Chairperson, provided Opening Remarks. Ken explained that no decision was made by the Manitoulin Planning Board so Council cannot make a decision at the present time. The lot is undersized and needs to be increased and the distance from the neighbours well must be determined. Ontario currently has no setbacks from Cemeteries to wells.

No members of the public had any comments regarding the severance.

Once Council has had an opportunity to review the information, the passing of the Bylaw could occur at the next Council Meeting.

There were no objections to the application by any members of the public that were present.
